BIBLIOTHECA BODLEIANA

Plurimis Libris Diversarum Facultatum tam Nuperis quàm Antiquis adjectis,

Quorum AUCTIO habebitur in Gratiam Celeberrimæ Cantabrigiensis Academiæ, apud Insigne St. Christophori in Vico vulgo dicto Trumpington-Street, 23^tio die Maii, 1687.

Per Edwardum Millingtonum Bibliopolam Lond.

Catalogues are Distributed to all Gentlemen-Scholars, &c. at the several Coffee-Houses in Cambridge, and at the above-mentioned Place of Sale. 1687.

To the READER.

THIS Sale consists of the Library of that Reverend and Learned Prelate Dr Laurence Womock late Lord Bishop of St. Davids, together with the Choice of the Stock of Mr. John Creed of Cambridge. And since the Design of all Auctions is the mutual Benefit of the Buyers and Proprietors; and of This more especially, which was Originally designed, and now will be held for the Advantage of the worthy and Ingenious Members of this University: I forbear to perswade by any other Motives, considering that Interest so effectually governs, and uncontroulably sways the Generality of Mankind, beyond the most powerfull Oratory and Rhetoricall Insinuations that I can possibly think of, as necessary to be used on this Occasion. I therefore promise to my self from the Experience I have had in former Essays of this Nature amongst You, a Success in some measure answerable to the Honest and Innocent Ends proposed by your humble Servant

Edward Millington.

This Auction will begin on Munday the 23 day of May, at the Sign of St. Christopher in Trumpington-Street; from the Hours of Eight in the Morning, to Eleven; and from One to Five; Continuing daily till all the Books are sold.

CONDITIONS of SALE.

I. THat he who bids most, is the Buyer; and if any Difference arise, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book, or Books, shall be forthwith exposed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwise expressed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the Money for the Book or Books so bought, be paid at the place of Sale, within one Month after it is ended; (but for the further Incouragement of the Gentlemen the Buyers, any Person Buying to the Value of Twenty Shillings, and paying the first Week of the above-mention'd Month propos'd, shall have Rebate for that Summe, and all others above it, at the Rate of 6 pounds per Cent.) Where the Book or Books so bought, shall be Ready to be delivered upon Payment of the Money, within the Time aforesaid.

IV. That any Gentlemen may have a View of the Condition or Edition of any Book or Books before the Hours of Sale, if they please to Repair to the Auction-House.
